

STAND WITH BRUSH & NIB

Do you support religious and artistic freedom?

Then join us on Tuesday, January 22, 2019, outside the Arizona Supreme Court to support Joanna Duka and Breanna Koski, the owners and artists of Brush & Nib Studio. As Christians, Joanna and Breanna gladly serve everyone. They simply can't express certain messages for anyone. Yet Phoenix seeks to use the threat of jail time and fines to force Joanna and Breanna to design and create custom artwork expressing messages that violate their core beliefs.

Will you come and support these brave young women with your presence as the Arizona Supreme Court hears their case? Join friends and allies from across the state as we stand for religious liberty and freedom of speech.

What: Arizona Supreme Court Brush & Nib Oral Argument and Rally in support of Joanna and Breanna.

When: Tuesday, January 22, 2019, 8:30 – 11:30 a.m.

8:30 – 11:00 a.m.: If you would like to attend the arguments, they begin at 9:00 a.m. Brush & Nib is the second argument of the morning. We encourage you to arrive around 8:30 a.m. to increase your chances of getting a seat.

10:00 – 11:30 a.m.: We will be gathering to support Joanna and Breanna outside the Supreme Court during the arguments, and will hear from Joanna and Breanna and their attorney after the arguments. Signs will be provided!

Where: Arizona State Courts Building, 1501 W. Washington St., Phoenix, AZ 85007. Those attending the argument should use the entrance on Jefferson Street and then proceed to the Arizona Supreme Court Courtroom. Those attending the outside gathering should go to the north (Washington St.) side of the building.

A press conference will take place outside immediately following the argument with Joanna and Breanna and their attorneys from Alliance Defending Freedom.
