

Arizona’s Primary Election is August 4. Do you know who you’re voting for, or even who’s running?

Center for Arizona Policy makes it easy to get informed with the 2020 Primary Election Voter Guide and azvoterguide.com.

CAP has surveyed candidates for U.S. Senate, U.S. Congress and the Arizona Legislature, as well as several city and county races. These local elections are often where voters can make the biggest impact.

Visit azvoterguide.com to find:

- A personalized version of the 2020 Voter Guide specific to your district
- Candidates’ answers and comments to key questions
- Biographical information on candidates including why they are running for office
- Researched positions for federal candidates who declined to respond
- Candidate contact information
- Information on city races
- Downloadable election resources

Dates to know:

Voter Registration for the Primary deadline	July 6
Early Voting begins	July 8
Primary Election	August 4

Please share azvoterguide.com with your friends. Chances are, there’s something they don’t know about the candidates in their districts. At azvoterguide.com your friends will get nonpartisan information on candidates so they, too, can get informed and vote this Primary Election on August 4.

With so much at stake in Arizona, we can’t afford to be passive this election. Now is the time to be steadfast in our values and reflect that in our vote on August 4.

For more information, call the Center for Arizona Policy office at 602-424-2525.